Alexandria Gazette Elegant dress goods.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 25, 1878.

A TURKISH BIRTH .- No sooner is it bero than the Turkish child is wrapped in clothes as tightly and compactly as a bologoa sturage, with a bright red silk cap and a charm on its H. B. Hoomes head to avort the "evil eye." Onions are set about the room also to basish evil. The father, so soon as the child is burdled up, is ushered in and takes it in his arms. He at once goes behind the door and shouts his name three times in its ear. The friends of the mother begin to call as soon as the news is out, and the sick chamber is the scene of a constant reception, with feasts of sweets, coffee, sheberts and cigarettes. The assembled ladies treat the infint with feigned disdain, and every now and then it is spat upon by one of the visitors.

The following is doubtless old, because we find it in a London paper, but it still contains an awful warning: "A facetious brakeman on the Central Pacific railroad cried out as the train was about en-tering a tunnel, "This is one mile long, and the train will be four minutes passing through it." The train dashed through into daylight again in four seconds, and the scene within the car was a study for a painter. Seven young ladies were closely pressed by seven pairs of masculine arms, fourteen pairs of lips were glued together, and two dezen inverted whisky flasks flashed in the air.'

At Dealham's all goods are warranted as represented. S. Dealham, 62 King street, has the finest Clothing in the city.
